

The activities of prof.assoc.dr. Sermin Turtulla

Prof. assoc. dr. Sermin Turtulla participated in a three-day training titled “Training Faculty to Identify and Develop for Experiential Learning Opportunities in their Courses (Curricular Redesign)”. Upon completion, Professor Sermin Turtulla was certified as a “Trainer of Trainers (TT) for Curricular Redesign” led by Dr. Lon D. Moeller of the Tippie College of Business, University of Iowa. The training is part of the “Private Sector Partnerships to Strengthen Higher Education” project funded by USAID and led by the University of Iowa (UI) in partnership with Iowa State University (USI) and the Kosovo Education Center (KEC).

Prof. Assoc. Dr. Sermin Turtulla together with a group of third-year students of the Department of English Language and Literature participated in the 12th Annual KETNET Conference entitled “Reshaping English Language Teaching” held in Pristina in June 2024. Professor Sermin and the students were invited by the organizers of KETNET to represent the University “Ukshin Hoti” Prizren in this important national event for teaching English in Kosova.